THE NEGLECT OF LIFE ASSURANCE.

THERE is no feature of our civilised life that strikes a thoughtful man with more force than the neglect of LIFE ASSURANCE. By payment of a small quarterly subscription any man of good health can secure a very large sum to his family in case of premature death, yet hundreds of families brought up in comfortperhaps in luxury-are left in extreme poverty every year from the bread winner having neglected to assure his life. In the East many a man lives up to his income, knowing well that if death cut him off suddenly, his wife and children would be left almost wholly unprovided for. All this can be prevented by Life

HOVERONG MONDAY, JULY 23, 1888

The Harbour Master's Report for 1887, which is published in Saturday's number of the Government Gazette and partially reproduced in another column of this issue. gauges to a point the progressive trade of this colony and opensup an almost unlimited horizon of maritime enterprise and prosperity for the near future. Historians and statisticions will find ample ground for research and comparative analysis in the twenty-three carefully compiled Tables which Chotaid Thomserr has annexed to his short but comprehensive report. The «Colony of Hangkong may in the meantime congratulate itself upon the great strides t has made within the short period of its existence as a British dependency This once barries and desolate rock, lost amid the innumerable islands which are scattered about the seas of Far Cathay, has, in loss than balf a century, developed itself on a girantic scale and taken the lead. many other far object and larger depen-Monday of the British Empire.

No better mirrors of our increasing prosperity as a distributing centre can be found than the annual Reports issued, by the Harbour Master's Department. Captain Phoneurr gives us now a retrospect as far as 1861, when he'took charge of the department. The total tunnage of the port, exclusive of junks, averaged then about 878, 135, and the number of foreign built ships ontering the harbour daily was about 5. This may be considered to be have been very encouraging returns for " such a small port as Hongkong; but if we compare them with the following details of 1887 we shall see the advance made in 26 years. . The arrivals in 1887, including Celestials, says the Straits Times, augur we junks, totalled 27.559, of a total tonnage for labour prospects and industrial enterprise in of 6401.837, being an increase of 377 year, and giving a daily average of arrivals of 75.5 vessels. It is gratifying to know that of this high number, 2,873 vessels, measuring, 3,388,123 tons, or a an average of 1.179 tons per vessel, were British, the remainder being 540 German vessels, 140 Chinese, 100 French, 63 Danish, 44 Dutch, 37 Norwegian, 29 Spanish, 20 United States, 14 Italian, 13 Austrian, 11. Russian, 5 Japanese, and r Belgian.,

The usual diagram which accompanies the Report is more clearly indicative of our steady maritime progress. The junk tonnage which in 1867 was 1,400,000, after undergoing many vicissitudes, reached, last year, 1,800,000. The Foreign shipping, itonnage ascends skywards in the diagram; in 1867 it was 1,200,000 tons, in 1872. 1.gno.coo; in 1878, 2.600,000; in 1883. 3.400 000; and in 1887, 4.600,000; the entire trade in foreign ships and in junks figures as follows in the diagram: 1867, 2,600,000; 1872, 3 8 30 000; 1878, 4.400,000; 1883, 5,300 000; and 1887, 6,400,000.

Emigration has also increased last year by 16.401 male adults, 1.530 female adults, 300 male children and 144 female children, over the total number of emigrants leaving the colony in 1886; the total last year being 82,897. The Report says on this subject: "With so extensive an emigration, it is scarcely possible to prevent abuses, but it is satisfactory to know that they are in a very small proportion." Our readers have all heard of the abuses which have been exposed and in several cases severely dealt with at both the Magistracy and the Supreme Court sitting in Criminal Sessions. A great deal of vigilance will have to be exercised on the masses of native emigrants, for as they come from the most lawless and destitute classes in China, they are a dangerous element in the Colony previous to their emigrating, and give no small cause of alarm to ship-masters when embarked.

In conclusion, we repeat that last year's to the commercial spirit of the Colony, and it is to be hoped that our Harbour Masters of the future, will have occasion to report Millory controlled the Brignder.

progress on an ever ascending scale, Moreover, the only department, we regret to say, on which the present Report throws no light whatever, is the Imports and Exports Statistics. We should have liked to see the values of the millions of tons which enter and leave these shores yearly registered, recorded and prominently set down before the public; but our wishes and the desires of a considerable portion of the community, in this line, will have to remain in petto for we know not how

A MYSTERIOUS case of poisoning was reported to the police this morning. After the Military band had finished playing in the Gardens last right they marched back to the Murray Barracks. There they had supper, consisting of bread, cheese, and coffee. Two or three hours later thirteen of them became sick, being attacked with severe pains in the stomach, attended by voniting and purging, as though they had been poisoned. After being medically treated, two were taken to Hospital, where they now lie in a serious condition. The rest are recovering, but are weak. It is supposed that the cheese was the cause of their illness, the coffee being served to the sentries and others without affecting them.

analyst for examination, -Ar-six-o'clock-this-morning-the-West-Point police discovered a fire in a block of houses in Second Street. It had broken out in the house No. 138, near the end. The origin was variously, explained, one witness saying that it was through "chin-chinning joss," another that somebody threw's bomb into the house, and so on. It spread from the first house to a long timberyard behind, stored with light wood for making boxes, and with 'old oil-barrels. This material ignited with great rapidity, and by the time the Government and Volunteer Brigades arrived it was like a bonfire, Five or six engines; were out, and the efforts of the firemen were concentrated on saving the block of about a dozen

Ir seems to me, said Flinders, that when the animalculæ which form the corals at the bottom of the ocean cease to-live, their structures adhere to each other, by virtue either of the glutinous remains within, or of some property in salt water, and the interstices being gradually filled up with sand or broken pieces of coral washed by the sea, which also adhere, a mass of rock is at length formed. Future races of the animalcules erect their habitations upon the rising bank, and die in their turn to increase, but the form of an island is gradually assumed and last of all comes man to take possession.

THE renewal of the Sunday evening performances by the band belonging to Conductor Moran and the Northamptonshire Regiment, in the Kennedy Gardens, is very welcome. A large number of people strolled around the terraces in the bright moonlight, listening to the admirable rendering of a good programme, with its intermittent frog-obbligato from the fountain. The only drawback is the scarcity of the seats: 'at present they are almost entirely appropriated by burly soldiers and "mashing" Portuguese youths, to the exclusion of ladies or elderly The illness of many of the bandsmen. referred to in another paragraph, is doubly regrettable-for their sakes and for the sake of the public. It is to be hoped that their speedy recovery will enable them to continue their musical Sunday evenings.

A TABLE giving the returns of births and deaths for the second quarter of the current year, end ing 30th. June is published in last week's Darwin for this port on the 21st inst., and may. Government Gazette. Among the British and Foreign population which is estimated at 10,622, 33 births, and 62' deaths were registered, of 12 42 and 23.34 respectively. In the Chinese population estimated at 177,470, 294 births and 1,549 deaths occurred, the rales being 6.62 and 34 91. The total population of the colony is fired at 188,092 souls, and the rate of births during the period under review was 695 as against 34.26 for deaths, -a struly alarming disproportion. The following particulars of deaths are added: Among Europeans, exclusive of Portuguese, 17; Portuguese, 20; Indians, etc., 13; non-residents, 12. Deaths at the Italian Convent, 138; at the Asile de la Ste, Enfance, 192 at the Tung Wa Hospital, 417. The deaths registered during the week ending 14th inst. were 142, of which 25 were from Cholera nostras in the Chinese community, 13 from Cholera infantum, and 3 from diarrhoes. The death rate per 1,000, per annum, for the British and Foreign community for the same period was 56.3; for the Chinese land and hoat population, 38 enjoy a pleasant treat, and all round amusement seekers avoid any tendency to ennui- by the variety given, without the thought in their minds that they must submit to listen to a merely music-hall variety performance. The concert on Saturday, night was a no small item in the evening's programme, and it was especially enjoyable from a musical point of view. It is not often that a single person can fill all the requirements of an orchestra, even when he has an exceptional piano to play upon, but Mr. Robertson seems to possess a musical faculty and a touch that permits one to forget that there is but one person playing, and allows the mind to imagine perhaps more than the facts warrant. The fendering of the selections during the intervals was faultless, and these were not the least enjoyable pieces of the evening. In the concert itself Mr. Fisher did much better than on the preceding evening duties, to live as he lived, to trust-as he trusted. on one or two occasions, for there was noticed A little more impressement during his singing of " Memory," in company with Misses Hare and Leamington. All three seemed in good voice, and were most deservedly applauded. Mr. Fisher's rendering of "Fetters of gold" was very good, but' his voice showed to better effect in the "Flow gentle Deva" with Mr. Imano, for both voices harmonized beautifully and showed to good purpose the powers of the artistes. Mr. Imano's chefd'auvre was his singing of "The Wolf" which, although well-known and almost hackneyed, is thoroughly enjoyable when sung in such style as on Saturday night. Mr. Imano Hare, for some cause or other, did not sing II | and was cremated, according to the funeral rites of ington, with a very delightful contraits solo, the of this custom and the methods of carrying title of which did not transpire. The managers have every reason to congratulate themselves on having struck a popular vein in Hongkong; there is not the least doubt about > the further success they will score while here. It was rather a bold effort, which the manage-. ment ventured upon in the presentation of the "Arabian Nights" though anything better fitted to bring to the surface the peculiar and varied talents of the Company we do not think could easily have been selected. Of the play itself it is only necessary to say that it belongs to a school which is becoming more and more common. There is nothing really novel in the plot, which is very similar to that of "Pink Donnnoes" and "Forbidden Fruit' though there is nothing coarse or objectionable There are a few "new" situations which are brought out to good effect by the performers, but the play requires to be seen to be appreciated. There are some very good laughs in it, and Mr. Willard has the happy faculty of putting himself into the character in such a way as to lead, the audience with him. As "Arthur Hummingtop," whose wife is away 'visiting, he throws light on the dark ways of grasswidowers at such a time, and gets into the inevitable scrapes. His running against Rosa Columbier the "gutta percha girl," is very significant, and on the natural results of the lies he needs must tell, to get out of the scrapes, hangs the main action of the piece. CREMATION IN HONGKONG.

The system of burning the bodies of the dead this colony, though never practiced wit deceased Chinamen or with Europeans, as far as we are aware, is yet far from being uncommon and is always strictly carried out in all cases o death amongst the Hindoo community, whose numbers are, however, small, and confined principally to police constables and gun lascars. was most deservedly recalled after it. The dead man was a Sikl and in religion a Hindoo, of which there are British India fully twenty different castes. This morning, soon after daylight, his friends and. acquaintances, to the number of about twenty, met, outside the door of his but at Wanchai, carrying a bambooladder. Upon this the body was placed, dressed carefully in clean white ordinary day clothing (not uniform) common to his caste, shoes put on the feet and turban wound around the head. The pall was a somewhat large linen covering. The nearest relations best friends of the deceased then; without further ceremony, picked up the body thus laid. and started for the burning ground, followed by 'all assembled friends, who relieved them of their solemn burthen at short and regular intervals—the most distant acquaintances coming last. Chanting their funeral hymns on the short journal as far as the end of the Wanchai gap the procession turned sharp up to the burning-ground, which is situated at the back of the Mahomedan cemetery. Here was quickly observed blackened spot where other burnings had taken place and near which the body was laid, covered, on the ground. Several piles of firewood previously bought from Chinese shops and conveyed to the place by coolies, were now approached by all the mourners, and car ied to the place of burning, where the funeral pyre was quickly built up in a structure of six feet by about three broad and three feet high. CORRESPONDENCE

[We do not necessarily endorse the opinions expressed by Correspondents in this column.]

THE "DAILY PRESS" ON MUSIC. TO THE EDITOR OF THE "HONGEOGO TELEGRAPH." DEAR SIR,—Your worthy contemporary The Daily Press has again showed its utter ignorance in musical matters. The criticism of the concert which preceded Saturday night's performance amply proved this. Amongst other interesting items, we are informed that Miss Hare's voice showed to great advantage in Il Bacio. As a matter of fact, Miss Hare, from some cause of other, never sang Il Bacio at all, but her place was taken by Miss Leamington, who sang with great taste and expression a song, with the name of which I am not acquainted. Now, surely an one without professing to be a critic, could distinguish between such a well-known, we might say, hackneyed composition as Il Bacio, and a simple ballad; and besides, the intelligent critic could surely not fail to tell the difference between a soprano and a contralto voice. If this is fair specimen of the Press work they might as well abandon musical criticism as a hopeless Hoping you will find room for this in your to-night's issue, I enclose my card and remain

This being the last Annual Return it will be my duty to make to the Government, I trust it will not be thought out of place to give a short account of the progress in Shipping, &c., the Colony has made since I have held the Offices of Harbour Master, Marine Magistrate. Emigration and Custom's Officer. I was, in the first instance, while serving in the Royal Navy, temporarily employed by the Colony from the 17th March to 26th November, 1860; and in March, 1861, I was, on the resignation of my predecessor, permanently appointed to this Department.

3. The Department when I took charge consisted of the Harbour Master, three Clerks, and one Bourding Officer, the annual tonnage of the Port, exclusive of Junks, averaged about 878,135 tons, and the number of foreign built ships entering the Port daily was about 5. The returns accompanying this report show the progress the Colony has made. Twenty-seven years ago steamers were the exception, and sailing ships the rule, and previous to 1866, Junks went in and out of harbour unnoticed. The average tonnage of a steamer then was very little over one thousand tons, whereas now it is no uncommon thing to see three or four steamships in Port at one time each measuring from 3 to 4,000 tons and upwards. 5. Previous to 1865 Piracy in Colonial and neighbouring waters was of common occurrence. and Shau-ki-wan bore a very bad name as the centre where Junks fitted out for piratical purposes Its close proximity to the Lycemun Pass enabled Masters of heavy manned and armed Junks to follow vessels that had been ascertained to have opium, or other valuable cargo, on board. These were too frequently come up with and attacked at night, stink-pots and arms of all descriptions being freely used. Shortly after Governor Sir Richard MacDonnel's arrival his notice was attracted to the unenviable character Hongkong bore as a Pirate resort, and he introduced Ordinance 6 of 1866, which brought all Junks under the supervision of this Department, which was considerably increased to meet the requirements of the Ordinance. Harbour Master's Stations were created at Shau-ki-wan, Stanley, and Aberdeen (now supplemented by Stations at Yau-ma-ti and Hung-hom) so as to bring all Junks visiting these waters under close inspection, and no Junks have since been allowed to leave or enter the waters of the Colony without undergoing an examination by Inspectors appointed for the purpose. Ordinance 7 of 1866 compelled the registration of all Chinese householders, and the two Ordinances assisted by Gunboats which the Senior Naval Officer kept constantly cruizing had the desired effect, and Hongkong soon ceased to be a resort for pirates, and that trade (if it may be so called) came to an end. Isolated acts of piracy are still reported, but they are not attended with the slaughter and burning that existed in Hongkong's carlier days.

to. In 1875, an explosion and loss of life, on board a steam launch in the Harbour caused an Ordinance to be brought into force for the: regulation of steam ferry boats, of which there are now 42 licensed. The Masters and Engineers of these boats undergo an examination at this Office, the boats are thoroughly examined every six months, and no further accident has occurred.

11. Till 1876, steamers plying between Hongkong Canton and Macao were under no regulation whatever, and they ht times carried as many passengers as could be crammed into them, These vessels are now, as indeed are all vessels carrying more than 12 passengers, under stringent regulations as to the number of passengers they can convey, the condition of boilers and engines is ascertained and it is stated on the ship's certificates in what parts of the ships and how many passengers can be carried.

12. The Shipping Ordinances passed previous to 1879 were consolidated by Ordinance 8 of 1879, and in framing this Ordinance advantage of water. was taken to introduce regulations for the Survey of ships carrying more than 12 passengers, for the appointment of practical Marine Surveyors | the Villages. to conduct the surveys for the examination of Engineers as to their qualifications, for the carriage of dangerous goods, for holding Courts of Survey, for regulating medicines and medical stores, and other smaller details were introduced to meet the requirements of the time.

-13. The following table from 1861 to 1887 follows :inclusive, will at once show the yearly increase of the arrivals of vessels at this Port. Where it it has been possible to separate sailing ships from steamers and Junks, I have done so, and the result will show a very satisfactory statement

29. Women and children under 12 years of age have to provide two photographs each, one is kept on record at this Office, and the other remains in the possession of the Emigrant, so that on arrival at their destination there can be no question as to their identity, should, after the vessel has satied, any one appear at this Office and complain that a relative has been improperly taken away. With male adults it is more difficult to deal, and they are a good deal left to their own resources. They are all, however, questioned as to their desire to leave the Colony, and if their replies are in the affirmative there can be no reason why they should not exercise their rights and proceed on their voyage. It any emigrants leave here against their will it is entirely due to themselves for not stating the medically examined on board the ship by which they are to proceed.

THE GOVERNMENT ASSESSOR'S RERORT ON THE ASSESS-MENT FOR 1888-9.

ASSESSOR'S 'OFFICE, Hongkong, 4th June, 1888. SIR,-I have now the honour to hand you the second Annual Report shewing the result of the work of the Assessment Department for the year

(From the Government Gasette)

ending 31st May, 1888. 1. During this period I have made an entirely | Sir Rowland Trenchard .. WHIFFEN CRIPPS. New Assessment of Victoria, The Hill District, Pok-fu Lain, So-kon Po, and Kowloon Point the assessment for the remaining portion of the Colony has been adopted for the ensuing year by order of the Governor in Council in accordance with the provisions of the Rating Ordinz. The result of the New Assessment is that the Rateable Value of the entire Colony has -been-raised-from-$2,902 933 to $3,050,790 on the-Old Assessment, shewing an increase of 5 per cent, on the Rateable Value, viz : $147,857 and an increase in the Rates to be collected of $16,697 or about 4.6 per cent. above this year's

3. A perfectly reliable comparison cannot, however, be made between the Assessment of this year and that for the ensuing year as the latter has been made in accordance with the New Rating Ordinance, which has reduced the percentages in some cases, in the amount of rates to be paid, viz: at Quarry Bay and Pok-lu Lam the rates were F2 per cent, or the Rateable Value, and the Piers in Victoria are now only to. be charged with 7 per cent, instead of 13 per cent, on their Rateable Value.

4. I annex hereto'a Tabular statement which will more clearly show the relative values of the respective Assessments...

ig. The Rateable Value of property generally in this Colony is on the increase. District No. 1 at the West End of the City has considerably increased in value, not so much in the value of individual Tenements as in the number of New Tenements elected. The Rateable Value of this part of the town has increased 17 per cent. The Hill District, (Victoria Peak) has also considerably increased in value since the last Assessment and likewise Kowldon Point, mostly on account of the extensive Godowns which are being erected on the Praya.

6. The number of Rateable Tenements is 9.537, being an increase of toz; this is a small number, caused in doubt by the numerous fires, 150 Tenements being thereby destroyed in twelve months and most of these Tenements although being rebuilt are not yet rateable.

7. A very considerable portion of my time allotted for the General Assessment has been taken up in investigating the Returns made by the Chinese of the Rents they receive, on which I base my Assessment, and I regret to say that I believe a very large number of the returns made to me are false, in eight cases I conclusively proved to the Magistrates before whom I summoned the offenders, that false returns were knowingly made to me, in some cases by Chinese occupying a good position in the Mercantile World, and notwithstanding the widest publicity was given to the Magisterial proceedings, the offences were continued. In the above cases Fines to the amount of $2,875 were recovered.

B. In the course of the investigations I discovered a fraud which no doubt has been going on for some years whereby the owner of a property not only made a return, to me of the tent he said he received, which however, proved to be about half of what he actually did collect, but he collected Taxes from his Tenants by producing to them an authority purporting to emanate from the Colonial Treasury demanding Taxes based on a Rental even greater than the amount received, thereby making a very large profit out of the Rates, for which he was arrested and the Magistrate admitting him to bail in the sum of $1,500 to come up on remand, the defendant did not appear and so the bail was forfeited, and I have reasons to believe that this is but one of many such cases, but the difficulty of obtaining evidence from the Chinese is so great that it is almost impossible to get a con-

9. The House numbering of the tenements having now been added to my duties by the Rating Ordinance, I purpose re-numbering the Old Tenements and numbering the New Ones, in the respective Villages as soon as possible, as until that is done it is impossible to accurately assess them or describe them in the Rate Book. to. In conclusion I beg to state that, I believe the recent prosecutions have had a wholesome effect, on the Chinese in making them see, that they can no longer, with impunity and without great risk of being very heavily fined, make false returns of their Rents to the Assessment Depart-

11. The amount of fines, &c. viz. : $4,375 will more than pay the entire cost of my Department this year, for which a sum of $3,598 was provided for in the Estimates.

I have the honour to be, Sir, Your most obedient Servant, A. SHELTON HOOPER, Assessor. To The Honourable A. Lister, Colonial

The harometer has risen in the south and has fallen in the north The typhoon has moved northwards. Its centre was yesterday tituated to the south of Japan. Directions to remove the Red Drum were issued at 9.5 on the sand. The weather continues close, hot, and dry, as the south-west mensoon in the wake of the typhoon did not attain to any force in China. This is probably due to the formation of another typhoon at a great distance.
